No. 2.

WHEN THE PENDULUM STOPPED.

Maurice Van Veghten rode down the lane and dismounting before the little house knocked on the door. He carried a package and his heart was light for he was going to see Laura Austin, his fiancé, for the first time in six months. Van Veghten was a lieutenant in the Continental Army, which was defending the rights of the colonies from the tyranny of British oppression. He had enlisted in the New Jersey militia at the first news of Lexington, and now, in July, 1777, had fought his way to a lieutenancy. He was stationed at an outpost near Freehold and thus enabled to pay a visit to his intended wife who lived about five miles distant. Previous to this he had been detailed in North Carolina, and had heard but once or twice from her. Consequently he was in a high state of elation on this summer evening. The door opened and he was in the presence of his beloved. After the first greetings were over he produced his bundle and opening it disclosed a clock having a long pendulum.

"One of our men, a queer fellow, was mortally wounded yesterday, and before dying he asked me to take a clock which he had in camp and see that it was in safe hands. He said it had belonged to his mother and he valued it highly. So I have brought it to you, for it will be safer here than in any other place."

"What a peculiar clock it is. Let's wind it up and start it going," said Laura, and since whatever she said was law, the clock was soon ticking merrily.

But Maurice's time was short, as he had to carry dispatches to General Lincoln. He had left Lincoln's camp in the morning and taking a letter to Cadwalder on the North Branch of the Raritan and was now on his way back with Cadwalder's reply. So after a few minutes spent in parting he mounted his horse and galloped back towards camp. He had gone a few miles when suddenly a rifle shot rang out from behind a fence, and Van Vechten fell severely wounded. Meanwhile his sweetheart was sitting in her home thinking of the brave lover and hoping for the war to cease that they might be married. Suddenly something seemed to change in the room. Something seemed lacking which had but a moment before been there. She looked around and saw that the pendulum of the clock was motionless. At once she felt that something had happened to Maurice Van Vechten. Running out to the barn she mounted a horse and dashed down the road toward the American camp. As she was crossing a small bridge her horse shied violently and refused to advance. The body of a man lay directly in front of her. Leaping off her horse she bent over the prostrate figure. It was her lover. His lips moved and he murmured, "Never mind me, take the dispatches in my inner pocket and ride to Lincoln's camp and then bring back help."

Laura found the dispatches and soon was in the camp of the Americans. A squad of men were at once sent out and brought back Van Vechten, who was badly wounded. For weeks his life was in jeopardy but finally the crisis passed and he was safe. He was not strong enough for army life until the next spring, however, and in late October Laura and he were married in the little church at Tenant.

The next spring he entered the army again, and the surrender of Cornwallis found him a major. He and his wife settled down in peace, and in the hall of their room ticked an old clock, whose pendulum never ceased moving.

When you see a man
Walk right up and say "hullo."
Say "hullo" an' "how d' ye do!"
"How's the world a using you?"
Slap the fellow on his back,
Bring your han' down with a whack;
Waltz right up, an' don't go slow,
Grin an' shake an' say "hullo!"

Is he clothed in rags? O sho!
Walk right up an' say "hullo!"
Rags is but a cotton roll
Jest for wrappin' up a soul;
An' a soul is worth a true
Hale an' hearty "row d'ye do!"
Don't wait for the crowd to go,
Walk right up an' say "hullo!"

W'en big vessels meet, they say,
They saloot an' sail away,
Jest the same are you an' me,
Lonesome ships upon a sea;
Each one sailing his own jog
For a port beyond the fog.
Let your speakin' trumpet blow,
Lift your horn an' say "hullo!"

Say "hullo" an' "how d'ye do!"
Other folks are good as you.
W'en you leave your house of clay,
Wanderin' in the Far-Away,
W'en you travel through the strange
Country, t'other side the range,
Then the souls you've cheered will know
Who you be, an' say "hullo!"

—SAM WALTER JOSS.

Did you take that trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheerful—

Or hide your face from the light of day

With a craven soul and fearful?

Oh, a troubles's a ton, or a trouble's an' ounce,
An' it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,

But only, how did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, what of that?

Come up with a smiling face,

It's nothing against you to fall down flat,

But to lie there—that's disgrace.

The harder you're thrown, why the higher
you bounce;

It isn't the fact that you're hit that counts,

It's how did you fight, and why?

And though you be done to death, what then?

If you battled the best you could,

If you played your part in the world of men,

Why the critics will call it good.

Death comes with a crawl or comes with a pounce,

And whether he's slow or spry,

It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts,

But only, how did you die?

—EDMUND VANCE COOKE.

Tune— "Our Director."

On for a touchdown, on for a score,

Plough through their line, boys,

Only ten yards more.

Oh cheer for Rutgers Prep. School,

On for a touchdown,

The vict'ry is nigh,

Prep. wins again

NORTH POLE.—The greatest mystery of the past three centuries has been solved, after attempts which have cost the world hundreds of human lives. Twice within the last summer word has been received that the North Pole has been discovered, and what has made us all thrill with pride is that each time it was an American who accomplished the feat. All honor to Doctor Cook and Robert Peary. Although the newspapers strive to stir up doubt concerning the word of these men the people are satisfied that they have spoken the truth. Their success is typically American. It is but a further example of the grit and determination which has put the United States in the front rank of world powers and it shows that the spirit of Valley Forge and Bunker Hill flows through the bodies of the descendants of those who gave their lives that the nation might live. May we, the younger sons of that nation, continue as our fathers have done before us and make our country even more respected, prosperous and Christian than it is now.

ROWDYISM.—The college authorities have objected, and with good cause, concerning the way some of our students have acted at the Prep. games on Neilson Field. The other day at the Pingry game several fellows attempted to get on the field from the bleachers and resisted when ordered off, causing quite a scene. Their reason for wanting to go on the field was that they had paid their dues and had the right to go anywhere they pleased. The privilege of using the field was given to us by the college and we pay nothing for it, and they have asked that our fellows do not leave the bleachers. It is a very poor way to show our gratitude to them by directly overlooking their wish. Prep. men, it is up to you to think of such things and let the next offender of this rule be treated as he has merited.

BASKET-BALL.—Foot-ball is over and we have done well. While the list of victories is not as long as usual, higher grade teams have been played. But now it is time to stop talking about our victories and defeats until next summer, and turn all our energies to basketball and the winter sports. Last year the season was not successful, but this year we should make up for it. All of last year's team are back and several stars from other schools are enrolled in Prep. From this assortment of the old and new a fine team should result under the able coach of the man who did so much for our foot-ball team. So let everybody be out and practice hard each day.

ARGO.—So far this year the fellows have not supported THE ARGO at all. It has been the work of one or two men. And yet the school kicks because it is dry and uninteresting. We are doing our best but we cannot do everything. Whenever you see or hear something funny or interesting about the school write it down and hand it to the editor. If everyone does this the paper will be lively and interesting. And write stories. We need them badly, to say the least, and it may be that some issue will come out without any. Editorials, too, are needed, and there are many subjects to pick from. There will be a good many dropped from the staff during the next month, and at the same time the men outside the staff who are taking hold and helping will be placed on THE ARGO board to fill the vacancies left by those who did not see fit to work.

One hundred years ago to-day

With powder in his gun, the man
Went out and got the deer.
But now the thing is changed,
And on another plan,
With powder on her cheeks, the dear
Goes out and gets the man.

That trophy room is coming. By the looks of things we will need two or three of them.

The drill suits are here and the company looks quite handsome. The new guns are expected soon.

Why is the pencil sharpener like a certain member of the Senior class? Answer: 'Cause it's broke.

Overheard in Montclair during the game: "Oh, aren't those Prep. boys handsome? I just love that fellow Ziegler?" Jim promptly made a touchdown.

The following are the members of our school who are contemplating matrimony: Morrison, Pratt, Erickson, CONGER and Pickles. Todd and Zeigler had a yearning for it, but after considering it fully decided to remain single.

THE RUTGERS PREP. CO-ED.

As she trips down the avenue, winsome and sweet,

With a strap full of books in her hand,
Wearing fixed to her shirt waist the red and white pin

Of the luckiest school in the land.
Be she blond or brunette, or a mixture of both,
You will find that it's ev'ry where said
She's the prettiest maiden that ever was seen;
She a Rutgers Prep. Co-ed!

She goes to the ball games and cheers for the Prep.'s

To the scarlet and white she is true,
Though she don't get a vote, yet she joins the A. A.

Which is more than some fellows would do.
For the sake of her smiles the Prep. team always wins,

And the hopes of our foes are dead,
Yet our "kings of the gridiron" are subject, all
To the Rutgers Prep. Co-ed!

Then fill up your glasses, all loyal Prep. men,
Here's a health to us all, ev'ry one,
Here's a health to THE ARGO, our teams and our profs,

(The finest ones under the sun).
And here's a health to that maiden fair,
By whom we are all of us led,
So drain your glass to the queen of our hearts,
The Rutgers Prep. Co-ed.

Have you seen the new art room? Well, it is worth seeing. It shows Mr. Scudder's enterprise and energy. All of us will want to take art, and there is no telling how many Miles and Van Dykes will soon appear.

On Wednesday, November 3, the fellows had the pleasure of hearing Mr. O'dwyer lecture on the blind. Mr. O'dwyer himself has the misfortune of being totally blind, but impressed us very much with his optimism. He is an accomplished musician and a very interesting speaker. He spoke of several men who were afflicted by loss of sight but were able to make their mark in the world. Among them was United States Senator Gore. In closing Mr. O'dwyer asked his audience not to regard the blind with pity but to treat them as fellow men. A collection was then taken up for the education of the blind, and a neat sum was realized.

And I wish I had my nickle back.

RUTGERS PREP. II.

TRENTON HIGH SCHOOL o.

Prep. played its best game of the season on October 23, when they defeated the strong Trenton High School team by the score of 11-0. This was the first time Trenton has been scored on this year, and it certainly does credit to Captain Todd's foot-ball fiends to have their scalp. Ziegler celebrated his return to school by running seventy yards for a touchdown. He played a great game throughout the contest. Pud Atkinson also shone, and the whole team did well. The left side of the line was crippled by the absence of Schumacher, but Clark and Twinanne filled his place creditably.

FIRST HALF.

Todd kicked off and Rose carried the ball back ten yards. Moore made first down but Trenton was penalized five yards for off-side. Trenton punted but Blackwell regained the ball. Trenton carried the ball to Prep's thirty yard line where a drop was attempted. Ziegler blocked the kick and gained ten yards. Rodgers gained twenty yards on a forward pass. Trenton received the ball on a fumble and carried the ball to our thirty yard line where they tried to drop. Ziegler caught the ball and gained two yards. Prep. fumbled and T. H. S. brought the ball to within one foot of the goal with first down. Our line made a noise like a stone wall, and we got the ball on downs. Todd punted from behind the goal and Ziegler catching the ball on the bounce raced down the field for a touchdown. White missed the goal. Score—Prep. 5, T. H. S. 0.

Todd kicked off and Moore ran back ten yards. On the next play he made twenty-five more. Trenton punted and Ziegler gained ten yards. Erickson made fifteen yards on a forward pass. Rodgers gained twenty-five yards on a forward pass. Time was called with the ball in our possession.

SECOND HALF.

Trenton kicked off and Elmendorf ran back ten yards. Todd made eight yards, and on the next play Ziegler cut loose for forty yards. Trenton got the ball on a fumble. Trenton punted to Prep's ten yard line. Here Prep. did the best work of the season. With five forward passes in succession they carried the ball to T. H. S.'s ten yard line, and Atkinson shot around end for a touchdown. White kicked the goal. Score—R. P. 11, T. H. S. 0.

Todd kicked to Pritchard who carried the ball to the thirty yard line. Trenton punted and White made a fair catch. Prep. made thirteen yards on a forward pass. Prep. punted and the ball see-sawed back and forth in Trenton's territory for the rest of the half.

Hast of Trenton was badly injured during the second half and taken to the hospital. Moore, Pritchard and Knoebel starred for T. H. S.

The line-up follows:

Trenton High School.—Blackwell, l. e.; Mass, l. t.; Rose, l. g.; Miller, c.; Hast, Burdiss, r. g.; Pritchard, r. t.; Bergin, r. e.; Knoebel, q. b.; Borden, l. h. b.; Moore (capt.) r. h. b.; Blake, f. b.

Referee—Hoe. Umpire—Cox. Time of halves—25 and 20 minutes.

—o—

NOTES OF THE GAME.

T. H. S. are good fellows and have a corking good team. We intend to finish them in base-ball.

Schumacher got lost in New York.

White ran back and caught Trenton's short punts. Pretty fast.

"Pud" made his first touchdown.

Trenton sure is plucky.

Philadelphia Ledger says: "Trenton gained at first but after the first five minutes the Rutgers boys won easily." Not so easily.

Ziegler certainly did show his joy at getting back in the game.

On Wednesday, October 27, we met the Freshmen on the Trap field and defeated them, 15-0. Atkinson scored one and Todd two touchdowns. Savage of the Freshmen had his shoulder broken in two places. Chase, Turner and Julie played well for our opponents. The Prep. cheering was good.

*RUTGERS PREP. 11,
PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL 6.*

Plainfield gave the team a bad scare on Saturday, scoring on Prep. for the first time since 1906, when they gained their only victory since 1894. They brought over a great team to New Brunswick. Rifferts, the quarterback, played the best game seen in a Prep. contest this year. Doane, Overton and Capt. Phillips also played fine ball, but Rutgers was not to be denied. Capt. Todd, Atkinson and Voorhees starred for the home team. We were crippled by the loss of Rodgers, Ziegler and Morrison, who were injured in the Freshman game. The team made a great rally in the second half, after being seemingly beaten. The cheering and singing were good.

FIRST HALF.

Todd kicked off and the ball went over the goal line, being put in play on the twenty-five yard mark. Plainfield carried the ball to Prep's three yard line where they were held for downs by great playing of Voorhees and Twiname. Todd punted and Plainfield carried the ball back to the five yard line. Their first two attempts failed, but on the last try Rifferts skirted end for a touchdown. He kicked the goal. Todd received the kick and carried the ball back ten yards. By line plunges we advanced the ball to our forty yard line where Atkinson made thirty yards on a pretty run. Time was called with the ball on P. H. S.'s fifteen yard line. Score—P. H. S. 6, Prep. 0.

SECOND HALF.

Overton made a short kick and Doane got the ball on Prep's forty yard line. They were held for downs. Prep. carried the ball to P. H. S.'s fifty yard line, where Erickson made a touchdown but was called back as the whistle had not been blown. Todd bucked over the line and White kicked the goal. Score—P. H. S. 6, Prep. 6.

Plainfield received but was held for downs. Prep. pushed the ball to their fifteen yard line when a drop was tried. A poor pass resulted and Erickson fell on the ball in the middle of the field. Todd punted. Prep. held P. H. S. for downs. A forward pass was captured by Rifferts who punted from behind his goal line. The whistle blew as Todd caught the ball, but he ran it back for a touchdown. White missed the goal. Score—Prep. 11, P. H. S. 6.

Todd kicked off and Doane was downed on his thirty yard line.

The line-up follows:

Rutgers Prep.—Rowland, l. e.; Twiname, l. t.; Schumacher, l. g.; Voorhees, c.; Conger, r. g.; White, r. t.; Erickson, r. e.; Elmendorf, q. b.; Parkin, l. h. b.; Atkinson, r. h. b.; Todd, f. b.

Plainfield High School.—Doane, l. e.; Van Zandt, l. t.; Clark, l. g.; Bellows, c.; Wedonson, r. g.; Morris, r. t.; Phillips, r. e.; Riffert, q. b.; Parsons, l. h. b.; Fleming, r. h. b.; Overton, f. b.

Umpire—Hoe. Referee—Parson.

—o—

NOTES OF THE GAME.

White showed his nerve by kicking that goal.

Atkinson made a fine tackle when Rifferts ran to our ten yard line.

The Plainfield fellows certainly are a fine bunch.

Todd used his head and won the game. A good many players would have stopped running when the whistle blew.

The team came back strong in the second half again. That shows what training will do.

Schumacher played well and Twiname was responsible for a number of fine tackles.

Only once since 1894.

We are going to beat them in basket-ball and base-ball too.

STATE 28, PREP. 6.

On Tuesday, Election Day, the team journeyed to Trenton and played Trenton State. The game resulted in a victory for our opponents by the score of 28-6. Our team was not playing in their usual form until late in the second half. The playing of Atkinson and Capt. Todd deserves mention.

FIRST HALF.

Donnelly kicked off to Capt. Todd who was downed on the five yard line. An attempt to punt was made, but Decker got the ball on a poor pass and scored. Donnelly kicked the goal. Prep. received and punted. Donnelly got the ball and ran the length of the field for a touchdown. Donnelly missed the goal. Prep. again received and rushed the ball to the middle of the field. Here they lost it on a fumble and after rushing it down the field our opponents pushed Donnelly across the line. Donnelly missed an easy goal. Prep. received but time was called with the ball in Prep's possession on their own thirty yard line. Score—Prep. 0, State 16.

SECOND HALF.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Partridge won their game for them. It would have been an easy win for us if he had not gone in.

Prep. did some good cheering.

Todd would have had a touchdown on that kick off—if he had one man for interference. He was clear of all but one man.

Montclair used Zeigler a little roughly. That is no way to win.

Twiname did well considering who he was up against.

Elmendorf and Atkinson were unable to play on account of injuries.

The officials were poor.

Well, Fountain, they had a chance to rub it in on you down there, didn't they? Never mind, we will get even in base-ball.

RUTGERS PREP. 11,

BOUND BROOK HIGH 5.

On November 13 the team went to Bound Brook and defeated the High School of that place by the score of 11-5. The team did not play in its usual form and seemed stale. Capt. Todd and Zeigler played well, but to Morrison goes the prize for starring in this game. He was in every play and his side of the line was invincible. NOTES OF THE GAME.

The old "Cac" was there on that kick. Bound Brook has a good team. Morrison starred. Good work, George. Lots of fumbles.

Rutgers beat Haverford 11-0. The coach is doubly happy.

Rutgers coach, Pritchard, is superintendent of Bound Brook High, and coached their team. He certainly has worked wonders with it since the first game.

EXCHANGES.

THE ARGO acknowledges with thanks the following papers: Parrot, Sunnyside, Oracle, Hackettstonian, Curtis High Monthly, Targum, M. A. S. Monthly, Keokuk, Vox Studentis, Irvonian, Searchlight, Vail Deane Budget, Red and Black, Red and Blue, Trident, Erasmian, Polytechnic, Beacon, Farnum Tatler, Spectator, On Bounds, West Jersey Academian.

We were unable last month to send THE ARGO to our exchanges. We hope that they will not feel that we overlooked them. This year we are going to criticise a few instead of attempting to remark on all the papers sent to us. In acting the part of the critic we shall attempt to give an impartial impression of the magazine we receive. But if we attempt to do this it is but fair that others should remark on us and point out our faults. Many papers have a list of the papers received and call it an Exchange Column. Many others do not even have the list and yet with but few exceptions these are the poorest papers we get. Come, editors, get your exchanges written up and take an interest in the rest of the world.

Parrott: Your editorials are extremely poor. Get some serious subject and do not joke in that column. Your stories are good.

Hackettstonian: A very good paper but no exchange column. Try and get one before next issue.

Oracle: Your exchange column seems absent.
